- j. Amendment to Ordinance #04-200-01. The Tribal Council amended Ordinance #04-200-01 by resolution # 05-0824-410 for permanent adoption of the emergency amendments.

2.02. Amendment. This Ordinance may be amended by the Tribal Council in accordance with the Constitution and any rules set forth governing amendment of laws of the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians.

2.03. Severability Clause. If any provision of this Ordinance or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this Ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Ordinance are severable.

2.04. Ratification of Prior Enrollment Decisions. Nothing in this Ordinance is intended to modify or invalidate enrollment decisions made or approved by the Enrollment Officer or Enrollment Commission under authority of Ordinance #94-1018-01 prior to the effective date of this Ordinance.

Article III. Definitions

3.01. General. For purposes of this Ordinance, certain terms are defined in this Article. The word "shall" is always mandatory and not merely advisory.

3.02. “Clear and Convincing Proof” means that measure or degree of proof which will produce in the mind of the trier of facts a firm belief or conviction as to allegations sought to be established.

3.03. “Enrollment Officer” means the individual responsible for maintaining the records relating to enrollment in the Enrollment Department. The Enrollment Officer may delegate responsibilities to employees of the Enrollment Department.

3.04. “Records” or “enrollment files” means any item or information about or collected from individuals, including, but not limited to, birth certificates, genealogy reports, or other documents that contain the individual’s name, or identifying particulars assigned to the individual, such as photographs, which information is collected for the purpose of determining the eligibility for enrollment in the Tribe of an individual or members of an individual’s family.

3.05. “Relinquishment” is an act by which an enrolled member voluntarily and officially gives up the right of Tribal membership. It is an action that can only be taken by the individual.

Article IV. Persons Entitled to Membership

4.01. Eligibility for Membership. An individual is eligible for membership in the Tribe, if he/she possesses at least one-fourth (1/4) degree Indian blood, of which at least one-eighth (1/8) degree must be Grand River Ottawa or Michigan Ottawa blood and:

a. Is a lineal descendant of a member of the historic Grand River Bands who resided in Manistee, Mason, Wexford or Lake Counties in the State of Michigan, who was listed on the schedule of Grand River Ottawa in the Durant Roll of 1908 as approved by the Secretary of the Interior on February 18, 1910; or,

b. Is a lineal descendant of individuals listed on the 1870 Annuity Payrolls of Chippewas and Ottawas of Michigan listed under the following Ottawa Chiefs:

Kewacushkum	Pay-quo-tush	Me-tay-wis
Shaw-be-quo-ung	Penayse	Kaw-gay-gaw-bowe
Maw-gaw-ne-quong	Ching-gawa-she	Aken Bell; and,

c. Is not currently enrolled in any other federally recognized Indian Tribe, band, or group.

4.02. Notations on Durant Roll of 1908. The notations of ‘red’ and ‘blue’ markings on the Durant Roll of 1908 shall not be utilized for the purpose of determining eligibility for membership.

4.03. Supplemental Reference Information in 1870 Annuity Payroll and the Durant Roll of 1908. The Durant Roll of 1908 is built upon the information in the 1870 Annuity Payroll and contains references to that document as well as to the supplemental reference material as identified in “Number Column” in the Durant Roll of 1908. The supplemental reference material in the Number Column shall be utilized in the determination of eligibility for enrollment and maintained by the Enrollment Department. Provided that, an applicant shall be responsible for obtaining any reference information identified in the 1870 Annuity Payroll or the Durant Role of 1908 that may reference other historical materials and annuity or rolls created by a federal agency.

4.04. Durant Roll of 1908 - Presumption of 4/4 Blood Quantum. Where there is no other information within the Durant Roll of 1908, and its included supplementary information, indicating blood quantum other than of the Tribe or band identified, the persons is presumed to be 4/4 blood quantum of that Tribe or band identified.

Article V. Enrollment Procedure

5.01. Application Forms. Application forms to be filed by or for applicants for enrollment will be furnished by the Enrollment Officer, or other persons designated by the Enrollment Commission, upon written or oral request. All applications for enrollment shall be filed with the Enrollment Office.

5.02. Separate Application for Each Individual. A separate application is required for each individual seeking enrollment or for whom enrollment is sought. A parent or legal guardian of a minor under the age of 18 may file an enrollment application on behalf of his/her child(ren). Legal guardians of other legally incompetent persons may file enrollment applications on behalf of such persons; however, the Enrollment Officer may require proof of a guardian's status as a condition of approving an application submitted on behalf of such person. The Enrollment Officer shall assign a control number to each application received.

5.03. Burden of Proof. The burden of proof is clear and convincing proof and rests with each person submitting an application for enrollment to establish the applicant's eligibility for enrollment pursuant to Article IV of this Ordinance.

5.04. Documentary Evidence. Documentary evidence such as birth certificates, death certificates, baptismal records, copies of probate findings, or affidavits, may be used to support enrollment. Records of the tribe or of the Bureau of Indian Affairs may be used to establish eligibility. The Enrollment Officer may utilize documents submitted on behalf of one family member in determining another family member's eligibility. The Enrollment Commission shall establish, by regulation, standards of evidence that ensure the accuracy of the information being presented.

5.05. Review of Application; Recommendation by Enrollment Officer. The Enrollment Officer shall make every effort to complete his/her review of each application within 120 days after receipt of the application. The Enrollment Officer shall make a recommendation to the Enrollment Commission to either accept or reject the application. The Enrollment Officer may request additional information from the applicant prior to submission of a recommendation to the Enrollment Commission. All information requests of this nature shall include a sixty day response deadline. The request for additional information shall be sent to the applicant via U.S. mail return receipt requested. Failure to respond within the deadline will result in the application being forwarded to the Enrollment Commission. The Enrollment Officer shall review all information in the application and documentary evidence to verify the accuracy or authenticity of the information or documentary evidence.

5.06. Review and Provisional Decision by Enrollment Commission. The Enrollment Commission, with the assistance of any person authorized to assist in the enrollment processes, shall review each application, the recommendations of the Enrollment Officer, and make its provisional decision in writing stating the reason(s) for acceptance or rejection of the application.

- a. A provisional decision does not confer enrollment status, which is conferred only when a final decision is issued. A provisional decision identifies that an applicant has met all eligibility requirements, and offers an opportunity for the applicant to correct blood quantum determinations, or other matters in regards to the enrollment process.

- b. An applicant who has no questions or corrections in regards to a provisional decision may send notice prior to the conclusion of the 30 day waiting period requesting a final decision to be issued.

- c. No provisional decision shall become final until such time as an applicant, where applicable, relinquishes enrollment with the other Tribe.

5.07. Review of Provisional Decision. All applicants shall be given notice of a thirty day deadline to request a review of a provisional decision of the Enrollment Commission. If a request for review is received, the Enrollment Commission shall meet in conference with the applicant and identify the reasons why an applicant was determined ineligible or how the degree of Indian, Grand River or Michigan Ottawa blood was determined; provide a review of the evidence which was both accepted and rejected; and explain what evidence, if any, would assist in the decision making process.

5.08. Final Decision; Failure to Appeal. The Enrollment Commission shall then issue the final decision after the conclusion of the conference which shall be forwarded to the applicant. Failure to file an appeal to the Enrollment Commission within the thirty day appeal period shall result in the provisional decision being made final and results in forfeiture of the right to appeal to Tribal Court.

5.09. Eligible Applicants. Upon conclusion of the thirty day appeal deadline, persons whose applications for enrollment are accepted shall be assigned an enrollment number and shall be issued an enrollment card signed by the Tribal Ogema.

5.10. Ineligible Applicants. If the Enrollment Commission has entered a final decision to reject an application for enrollment, the Commission shall set forth the reason(s) for rejection in writing, including any additional evidence which might be needed to approve such application, and provide written notice to applicant of his/her right to re-submit the application at a later date or, if an appeal has been concluded in accordance with sections 5.07 and 5.08, the right to appeal the decision in accordance with Article X of this Ordinance.

5.11. Increase in Blood Quantum. If an applicant has appealed the Enrollment Commission's decision regarding an increase of blood quantum and a final decision has been entered not to increase it, the Commission shall set forth the reason(s) in writing, including any additional evidence which might be needed to approve a higher blood quantum, and provide written notice to applicant of his/her right to re-submit new information at a later date.

5.12. Address Update. It is the member's responsibility to inform the Enrollment Department with any change of address as soon as possible.

Article VI. Enrollment Commission

6.01. Creation. An Enrollment Commission consisting of seven enrolled Tribal members shall be appointed by the Tribal Council in accordance with applicable Tribal laws and policies governing the appointment of members of Tribal commissions. The term of office for a member of the Enrollment Commission shall be for four years.

6.02. Officers; Meetings. The members of the Enrollment Commission shall select one member to serve as Chairperson, one member to serve as Vice Chairperson and one member to serve as Secretary of the Commission. The Enrollment Commission shall meet at least once a month or as often as necessary. The Enrollment Officer or Commission Chairperson shall call all meetings when it is determined that there is a need for a meeting. All other rules of procedure for the conduct of meetings shall be determined in accordance with any applicable Tribal Ordinances or policies governing the conduct of meetings.

6.03. Additional Responsibilities. In addition to the responsibilities described in Article V of this Ordinance, the Enrollment Commission shall advise the Enrollment Officer, other pertinent staff and the Tribal Council as to how the enrollment process may be made as fair and equitable as possible. The Enrollment Commission shall also assist in the preparation of any special rolls, including rolls of Tribal members eligible for monetary payments or other benefits that may accrue to Tribal members.

Article VII. Maintenance of Roll

7.01. General. The Enrollment Officer shall ensure that the roll of tribal members is kept current.

7.02. Copies of the Roll. The Enrollment Officer shall prepare a minimum of four copies of the roll of those persons determined to be eligible for enrollment. The roll shall contain for each person a roll number, name, address, sex, date of birth, date of death, degree of Indian blood and degree of Grand River Ottawa or Michigan Ottawa blood. The membership roll shall be updated periodically or, at a minimum, annually, to add newly enrolled members.

7.03. Qualified Roll. Upon the conclusion of the initial file review, and every two years thereafter, the Enrollment Commission shall submit to the Tribal Council a Qualified Roll to be adopted. The qualified roll shall contain the name, address, date of birth, blood quantum, and enrollment number of each person reviewed and determined to be eligible for enrollment. Upon adoption by the Tribal Council of the qualified roll, the enrollment application process shall require only proof of family relationship to a person listed on the qualified roll.

Article VIII. Disenrollment

8.01. Grounds for Disenrollment. Grounds for disenrollment from the Tribe include:

a. Any enrolled member of the Tribe who applies for and becomes an enrolled member of any other federally recognized Indian Tribe, Band or group subsequent to his/her enrollment in the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians, shall thereby forfeit his/her membership in the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians.

b. Any enrolled member of the Tribe may be disenrolled upon a determination that a prior decision was made based upon a mistake of fact.

8.02. Mistake of Fact. If the Enrollment Officer receives information that a person who is an enrolled member of the Tribe has been enrolled based upon a mistake of fact, the allegations must be placed in writing and signed by the person who is alleging the mistake. At the next regularly scheduled Enrollment Commission meeting, the Enrollment Officer shall provide the written information to the Commission.

a. Commission Decision. The Commission shall determine if the information received is credible and decide whether the Enrollment Officer shall conduct an investigation to determine if the allegations in the statement are true.

b. Enrollment Officer Investigation. If the Commission recommends an investigation, the Enrollment Officer shall conduct it in a timely manner.

8.03. Procedure for Disenrollment. Upon receiving notice that one or more of the grounds for disenrollment exist, the Tribal Enrollment Officer shall, after authorization from the Enrollment Commission:

a. Contact the member, or the member's parent or guardian, and inform such person of the fact they will be disenrolled, the reason for such person's disenrollment and opportunity to provide arguments and evidence why he/she should not be disenrolled;

b. The notice required under paragraph (a) shall be mailed to such person's last known address by registered mail, return-receipt requested, at least thirty days prior to disenrolling such person;

c. If the notice to disenroll the member has not been signed within thirty days after the notice has been sent to the person's last known address, certified mail, return receipt requested, then the Tribal Enrollment Officer shall post a legal notice in a newspaper that serves the last known location of the member for a period of 5 consecutive days.

d. The Enrollment Officer shall submit a certificate of disenrollment, along with a written report, to the Enrollment Commission if the following requirements have been met.

1. Notice has been served on the member in accordance with Section 8.03(b)-(c);

2. An opportunity to provide arguments and evidence regarding disenrollment has been provided, or there was no response to the notice; and

3. The Enrollment Commission has verified the grounds for disenrollment.

e. If the Enrollment Commission determines that the disenrollment report is correct, the certification of disenrollment shall be entered;

f. Upon entering the certification for disenrollment, the Enrollment Officer shall provide the affected person(s), or such person(s)'s parent or guardian, notice of the Enrollment Commission's action and inform such person(s) of the appeals procedure pursuant to Article X of this Ordinance.

g. A Tribal member who is disenrolled because it has been verified that such person has applied for and become an enrolled member of another federally recognized Indian Tribe, Band or group, that person shall be banned from re-applying for membership for a period of five years.

Article IX. Relinquishment of Membership

9.01. Relinquishment Procedure. An individual may relinquish membership by:

a. Submitting a written and signed statement to the Enrollment Officer requesting that his/her name be removed from the membership roll.

b. The only acceptable proof of relinquishment is the signed, notarized letter of relinquishment.

c. Once an individual has relinquished his/her membership, that individual shall be banned from re-applying for enrollment for a period of five years.

d. Membership of a minor or other incompetent person may be relinquished by the parents or legal guardian; however, in such an event, a minor may re-apply, within the five year period, or upon reaching the age of seventeen. An incompetent person's relinquishment may be corrected by that individual by proving competency.

e. The Tribal Enrollment Officer may not refuse a competent member's request to relinquish his/her membership, if such person's request is supported by a written, signed and notarized letter making that request.

Article X. Appeal of Enrollment Decisions to Tribal Court

10.01. Appeal to Tribal Court. All appeals from decisions of the Enrollment Commission shall be heard by the Tribal Court.

10.02. Right to Appeal. Any person, including the parent or legal guardian of a minor or incompetent, who has been rejected for enrollment, accepted for enrollment but disagrees with the Indian blood quantum calculation, or subject to disenrollment has a right to appeal the final decision of the Enrollment Commission after expiration of the request for review period in section 5.05.

10.03. Burden of Proof on Appeal. The applicant appealing a decision of the Enrollment Commission shall have the burden of proof on appeal.

10.04. Deadline to Appeal. All appeals shall be made in writing to the Tribal Court. An applicant shall have thirty calendar days from the date of the adverse decision appealed from to file an appeal with the Tribal Court.

10.05. Extension. An applicant shall be granted a thirty day extension to file his/her appeal if a written request for an extension is filed with the Tribal Court within the thirty day period described in section 10.04.

10.06. Documents to Be Forwarded to Tribal Court on Appeal. The Enrollment Officer, upon receipt of notice by the Tribal Court Clerk, shall cause to be copied and submitted the following documents.

a. The application for enrollment and application file, including all evidence and documents contained therein.

b. The recommendation of the Enrollment Officer to the Enrollment Commission.

c. The minutes of the Enrollment Commission at which the decision regarding application for enrollment was made.

d. The letter forwarded to the applicant regarding the decision of the Enrollment Commission.

10.07. Examination of the Record; Request for Briefs. The Tribal Court shall permit all parties to examine records submitted on appeal and to provide briefs or other explanatory memorandum or responses to briefs or other explanatory memorandum.

10.08. Issues Which can be Appealed. The sole issues on appeal will be to determine if the Enrollment Commission made an error in rejecting the application for enrollment, disenrolling the applicant, or in calculation of an eligible applicant's degree of Indian, Grand River, or Michigan Ottawa blood. The burden of proof shall remain with the individual affected by the decision of the Enrollment Commission.

10.09. Tribal Court Decision. The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction to decide:

a. To uphold the Enrollment Commission's decision; OR

b. To remand all cases where:

1. the Tribal Court determines that the Enrollment Commission has incorrectly interpreted or applied this ordinance or the regulations of the Enrollment Commission; OR

2. the Tribal Court determines that new evidence is being submitted, OR

3. the Tribal Court determines that the Enrollment Commission incorrectly calculated the degree of Indian, Grand River or Michigan Ottawa blood.

Article XI. Confidentiality

11.01. Use of Information; Advice to Individuals.

a. Each individual who supplies or is asked to supply information about himself and his family shall be informed of the use or uses to which the information may be put, and what the consequences, if any, are of not supplying the information.

b. At minimum, the notice to the individual must state:

1. The authority which authorizes the solicitation of the information and that the disclosure of such information is voluntary;
2. That the principal purpose of such information is to determine the eligibility of that person and/or his relations for enrollment in the Little River Band of Ottawa Indians;
3. That the information may also be used to determine the eligibility of that person and/or his relations for benefits available from the state or federal government which are made available to persons of certain Indian blood quantum;
4. The effect on him and/or his relations, if any, of not providing all or part of the information requested by the Enrollment Officer or Enrollment Commission;
5. The steps which will be taken to keep such information and the procedure for authorizing disclosure of information to persons not authorized to access such information under this ordinance.

11.02. Assuring Integrity of Records.

a. Records Maintained in Manual Form. When maintained in manual form, enrollment files shall be maintained, at a minimum, subject to the following safeguards, or safeguards affording comparable protection:

1. Areas in which the records are maintained or regularly used shall be posted with an appropriate warning stating that access to the records is limited to authorized persons.
2. During working hours,
  - A. the area in which the records are maintained or regularly used shall be occupied by authorized personnel or
  - B. access to the records shall be restricted by their storage in locked metal file cabinets or a locked room.
3. During non-working hours, access to the records shall be restricted by their storage in locked metal file cabinets or a locked room.

b. Records Maintained on Computer. When maintained in computerized form, enrollment files and records shall be maintained, at a minimum, subject to safeguards based on those recommended in the National Bureau of Standards booklet "Computer Security Guidelines for Implementing Privacy Act of 1974" (May 30, 1975), and any supplements thereto, which are adequate and appropriate to assuring the integrity of records in the system.

11.03. Conduct of Employees.

a. Persons Authorized to Review Records. Unless disclosure to a particular person or persons is authorized pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, records contained in individual enrollment files may only be handled and reviewed by the following persons:

1. the Enrollment Officer;
2. members of the Enrollment Commission;
3. members of the Tribal Court reviewing or hearing an appeal regarding a particular enrollment application or file;
4. Legal Counsel as requested by the Enrollment Commission or Enrollment Officer; and
5. Election Board for the verification of signatures regarding a petition for a Constitutional amendment.
6. The Election Board, or the contracted vendor authorized to develop ballots and related mailing and election related materials, is authorized to obtain, directly from the Enrollment Department electronic files, necessary information to conduct Elections. Provided that, the Election Board, and/or contracted vendor, shall identify, to the Enrollment Department, the information obtained, and shall agree that upon conclusion of the Election, that all electronic information shall be destroyed and not maintained by either the Election Board or their contracted vendor.

b. Handling Records. Employees or members of the Appeals Board or Tribal Court whose duties require handling of records subject to this ordinance shall, at all times, take care to protect the integrity, security and confidentiality of these records.

11.04. Disclosure of Records.

a. Disclosure Prohibited. No records contained in individual member's enrollment files may be disclosed by any means of communication to any person, or another agency, except pursuant to a written request by, or with the prior written consent of, the individual to whom the record pertains.

b. Specific Exceptions. The prohibition contained in paragraph (a) does not apply where the record would be:

1. A list of enrolled member's names and address may be included in a Directory prepared by the Enrollment Officer in accordance with Article XII of this Ordinance. The Directory of members' names and addresses shall be provided to any Tribal member.
2. To the Bureau of the Census for purposes of planning or carrying out a census or survey or related activity pursuant to the provisions of Title 13 of the United States Code.
3. To a recipient who has provided the enrollment officer advance adequate written assurance that the record will be used solely as a statistical research or reporting record, and the records are to be transferred in a form that is not individually identifiable.

13.03. Utilization of File Documents.

- a. Upon return of the digital copies, the Information Services Department shall cause to make available, on-line, in a directory or other form, the digital records restricted to use by the Enrollment Department and Enrollment Commissioners in the course of their regular duties and for access by no other persons. The Information Services Department shall instruct the Enrollment Department and Enrollment Commissioners on how to access the documents. Finally, the Information Services Department shall forward a certification to the Tribal Council Recorder and Chairperson of the Enrollment Commission that the records are restricted to use only by authorized persons.
- b. Upon return of the digital copies, the Tribal Council Recorder shall maintain the copies in a secure manner for use by the firm or persons engaged to conduct a review of the enrollment records.
- c. The documents of the Enrollment Department shall continue to be maintained in a sealed manner and shall not be accessed by any person without written authorization of the Tribal Council.

Article XIV. Existing and New Applications

14.01. Existing and New Applications. All applications, whether submitted at the time of adoption of these temporary amendments or after adoption of these temporary amendments, shall be required to provide sufficient documentation regarding all relations, whether or not the relatives are already enrolled to determine the constitutional requirements of relation and degree of blood.

14.02. Use of Existing Decisions. The Enrollment Department and the Enrollment Commission are prohibited from utilizing existing enrollment decisions regarding relatives of applicants for enrollment to determine blood quantum or relation. The Enrollment Department and the Enrollment Commission may utilize existing records collected by the Enrollment Department on other applications for enrollment for making determinations in an application.

14.03. Extension of Time Lines for Reviewing Applications and Making Decisions. The deadline set forth in section 5.05 regarding research and decisions made by the Enrollment Department is hereby extended by an additional 90 days to allow for the development of information as a result of the restriction in section 14.02.

Article XV. File Review

15.01. General; Purpose. Every two years the Enrollment Commission shall direct a file review to be conducted as defined in this Article. The purpose of the file review is to verify the accuracy of the data and decisions made in the prior two years.

15.02. First Review. The first review shall be conducted on the file of every member. The following files shall be excluded from this first review.

- a. All files in which the member's application was reviewed under section 14.01.
- b. All files for which a mistake of fact investigation was conducted since January 1, 2004.
- c. All deceased members.
- d. All disenrolled members.
- e. All relinquished members.
- f. All denied applications.

15.03. Review - Burden of Proof. All files shall be reviewed with the burden of proof placed on the Enrollment Department. The following evidentiary guidelines shall be followed.

- a. Presumption of Accuracy. Each file shall be presumed to be accurate.
- b. Presumption Regarding Original Documents. Each document in a file shall be presumed to be either an original, or a copy of an original document. Errors on documents in a file must be clear and convincing in order to require re-submission or verification of accuracy.
- c. Application of Then Existing Rules. No file shall be required to meet rules or requirements that were not in existence at the time of the original decision.

15.04. Requirement to Locate Documents. The Enrollment Department shall be responsible for taking all reasonable efforts to collect documents, verify documents, or identify other information which would tend to prove that the decision to approve membership is accurate. Reasonable effort means the utilization of available resources and technical skills and/or knowledge. Reasonable effort does not require the Enrollment Department to cause expenditures for documents or other activities that would not have been conducted by an applicant in the course of the original application. Reasonable effort does not include conducting DNA testing or other blood testing to prove paternity or family relationship. The Enrollment Department is not required to contact a member in a file review under this Article, but is encouraged to do so where that contact could identify otherwise missing information.

15.05. Enrollment Officer Recommendation Regarding Review. Every file review conducted under this Article may result in changes in a member's blood quantum or family tree. As a result, each file review shall be submitted with the following documents.

- a. Enrollment Officer Recommendation Report. This report shall contain a narrative or other form of information presentation of the member's eligibility for enrollment qualifications, including blood quantum make-up, amount, descendant, and dual enrollment prohibition requirements.

b. Certified Family Tree. This family tree shall identify all necessary ancestors of a member, including references to the blood quantum and Durant Roll of 1908 or 1870 Annuity Payrolls notations. The family tree shall have the following signed certification.

I, [name of Enrollment Officer], certify that I have reviewed the file of [member name], whose enrollment number is _____, and certify that the family tree listed above is accurate and sufficient document exists to prove the relationships listed above. [signed and dated]

15.06. Enrollment Commission Review. The Enrollment Commission shall, at a regular or special meeting, receive and review all Enrollment Officer recommendations. For each file, one of the following actions must be taken.

- a. Re-affirmation certification of enrollment, including make-up of blood quantum and family tree.
- b. Certification of increase in blood quantum, including make-up of blood quantum and family tree.
- c. Certification of decrease in blood quantum, including make-up of blood quantum and family tree.
- d. Certification of disenrollment - mistake of fact regarding descending from 9 Chiefs on the 1870 Annuity Payrolls or from a person listed as living within the 4 counties on the Durant Roll of 1908, including make-up of blood quantum and family tree.

15.07. Notice of Decision. For each decision made under section 15.06, the Enrollment Commission shall provide notice to the member and an opportunity to appeal the decision for a hearing before the Enrollment Commission. The notice must identify the decision is the result of a file review conducted under this Article, and that the member must file an appeal in writing within 30 days of mailing of the notice. All decisions become final 30 days after mailing of the notice if no written appeal is filed. Provided that, the member may file a written notice that he or she does not intend to appeal. Upon presentation to the Enrollment Commission, the decision shall become final.

15.08. Hearing. A hearing conducted under this Article shall be scheduled within 30 days of receiving the written appeal on the Enrollment Commission agenda. Provided that, on extension of 45 days may be requested by either the member of the Enrollment Commission.

15.09. Written Decision. Each Enrollment Commission decision shall consist of two parts. The certification required under section 15.06, and the notice mailed to the member which includes the findings and decision from the appeal hearing and the notice of the right to appeal the decision of the appeal hearing to the Tribal Court. No appeal to the Tribal Court regarding a decision of the Enrollment Commission may be made unless first appealed to the Enrollment Commission.
